Kids Planet Yarrow House Newsletter

Spring 2016

Nursery Manager's Welcome

Welcome to our Spring newsletter of 2016 full of facts and what's happening in the nursery. A big welcome to our new families who have joined us and we hope your children have settled in and enjoying their time at Yarrow House.

So, what have we been up to at nursery?

Chicks

Exploring new floor toys

Foot and hand Painting

Enjoying messy play gloop

Hiding small objects in coloured rice

Our theme this month is Sunflowers.

Ducklings

Enjoying outdoor play in fine weather

Our theme this month is Under the Sea.

We are talking about sea life and fish.

Exploring new jigsaws

Goslings

Our theme this month is Farm Animals

Junk Modelling

Talking about being on a farm

Enjoying outdoor play in fine weather.

Pre School

Our theme this month is Healthy Eating.

We all enjoyed watching baby chicks hatch.

Looking at ways of how we can eat more healthy.

Announcements

Miss Bamber a renowned dance teacher in Southport teaches Pre-School children a range of dance skills and activities on a Tuesday afternoon. This develops our children's physical skills and aids deportment

Karen Ward is half way through her music course. Don't worry if you missed this one - more courses are to follow.

Mari teaches our Pre-School children Fun French on a Friday morning. The children enjoy singing and learning new words in French.

This months birthdays:

Happy Birthday to all our children who will enjoy a birthday this Spring.

Many Happy Returns!
